

FACULTY OF MEDICINE | UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY

CC W'10

Community Health Sciences
Community Rehabilitation and Disability Studies

Course Name

CORE 603.12

Half (3-0)

Politics of Inclusion and Exclusion
A study of law, policy and ethics for marginalized individuals and groups

Instructor and Course Information

COURSE: CORE 603.12

INSTRUCTOR: Cheryl Crocker

TERM: Winter 2010

TELEPHONE/FAX: (780) 497-5175

SECTION: L01

EMAIL: ccrocker@ucalgary.ca

DATE/TIME: MON 1800-2000

LOCATION: WEB

Course Description

Current topics relevant to inclusion and exclusion will be reviewed. Contemporary influences related to ethics will be examined. The topics will collectively focus on the political, social, ethical and economic impacts of policy.

The ethical underpinnings of legislation, policy and service delivery will be examined. The course will identify and examine the ethical dilemmas in community that provide the foundation for activism.

An examination of research in disability provides an opportunity for the student to learn, understand and compare legislation, policy and ethical frameworks that inform action. Frameworks of choice, respect, consultation, collaboration and cooperation will be examined.

Prerequisites

N/A

Resources

Canadian Social Research Links

<http://www.canadiansocialresearch.net/>

Disability rights education and defence fund

<http://www.dredf.org>

Disability Studies Resources at Ryerson University Library

<http://www.ryerson.ca/library/subjects/disability/index.html>

In Unison: A Canadian Approach to Disability Issues/Social Policy Renewal

http://www.socialunion.ca/pwd/unison/unison_e.html

National Center for Health Statistics (CDC) International Disability Classifications

<http://www.cdc.gov/nchs/icd9.htm>

Social Policy in Canada – Human Resources and Development Canada

<http://www.hrhc-drhc.gc.ca/socpol/home.shtml>

United Nations Web Site

<http://www.un.org/>

Other sites and articles will be offered throughout the course and will be part of the requirements for discussion board conversation.

Purchase from www.calgarybookstore.ca

Other References:

A brief history: Attitudes and treatment of people with disabilities (n.d.).

Retrieved October 4, 2006, from <http://www.wijk.com/ilarts.html>.

An introduction to social policy. Retrieved October 4, 2006, from

<http://www2.rgu.ac.uk/publicpolicy/introduction/politics.htm>

Annitage, A. (1996). The discipline of social policy. In Social welfare in Canada revisited (3 ed.). (pp. 161-177). Don Mills, ON: Oxford University Press Canada.

Bickenbach, J. (2001). Disability human rights, law and policy. In Albrecht, (1, Seelman, K. & Bury, M. (Eds.), Handbook for Disability Studies (pp. 565-584). Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage Publications

Bickenbach, J. (2006). Canadian Charter v. American ADA: Individual rights or collective responsibilities. In M. McColl & L. Jongbloed (Eds.), Disability and social policy in Canada (pp. 77-86). Concord, ON: Captus University Publications.

Burkbauser, R. & Daly, M. (2002). Policy Watch: U.S. disability policy in a changing environment Journal of Economic Perspectives, 16 (1), 213-224.

Danish disability policy: Small steps, big change? (2003) In Hegelund, 1. (Ed.) (2003), In search of effective disability policy: Comparing the developments and outcomes of Dutch and Danish disability policies (pp. 93-109).

Amsterdam: Amsterdam University Press.

Edinbinder, S. (2001). Policy analysis. In Encyclopedia of social work (19th ed.).pp. Washington, DC: NASW Press.

Enns, H., & Fricke, Y. (2003). The emergence of a global disability rights movement.

In H. Enns, & A. Neufeldt, A. (Eds.), In pursuit: Canada and disability at home and abroad (pp. 84-110). Concord, ON: Captus Press.

Ideas and concepts in social policy. (2003). In K. Blakemore (Ed.). Social policy: An introduction (pp. 17-39). Buckingham, UK: Open University Press.

Mitra, S. (2006). The capability approach and disability. Journal of disability policy studies, 16 (4), 236-247.

Neufeldt, A. (1999). Appearances of disability, discrimination and the transformation of rehabilitation practices. In R. Leavitt (Ed.), Cross-cultural rehabilitation: An international perspective (pp.25-54). London, UK: W.B. Saunders.

Palier, B. (2004 January). Social protection reforms in Europe: Strategies for a new social model. Ottawa, ON: Canadian Policy Research Networks Inc.

Public policy analysis. In E. Borgatta, & R. Montgomery (Eds.), Encyclopedia of sociology (2nd ed.). New York, NY: MacMillian Reference USA.

Richier, D. (2003). International involvement: A strategy for policy change at home and abroad. In H. Enns & A. Neufeldt. (Eds.), In pursuit: Canada and disability at home and abroad (pp. 137-151). Concord, ON: Captus Press.

The development of social policy in Britain. (2003), In K. Blakemore (Ed.), Social policy: An introduction (pp. 40-59). Buckingham, UK: Open University Press.

The transnationalization of popular movements: Globalization from below.(2000). In M.G.Wilson & E. Whitmore (Eds.), Seeds off Ire: Social development in an era of globalism (pp. 34-65). Ottawa, ON: Fernwood Publishing.

Westhues, A. (2003). An overview of social policy. In Social policy: Issues and perspectives (3rd ed.) (pp. 5-21). Waterloo, ON: Wilfficl Laurier University Press.

Wharf B., & McKenzie, B. (1998). Policy making models and their connection to practice. In policy to practice in the human services (pp. 22-38). Toronto, ON: Oxford University Press.

Wharf B.,& McKenzie, B. (1998). Analyzing and evaluating social policies. In Connecting policy to practice in the human services (pp. 49-65). Don Mills, ON: Oxford University Press.

Suggested Textbooks

N/A

Course Goals

- Solid foundation in understanding the politics of inclusion with a view to determining strategies and mechanisms to positively influence policy.
- study of research and policy issues, with the intent of gaining a comparative understanding of different perspectives and approaches
- coherency in legislation and policy
- explore the ethical perspectives that influence the determination of each
- weave together law, policy and ethics that are foundational to change processes
- examine the relationship to professional ethics and identity
- examine the social, economic and attitudinal influences evident in policy

Learner Objectives

- Understand international, national, provincial and local legislation related to inclusive practices in the domains of early intervention, education, employment, immigration, mental health and aging
- Develop a deeper appreciation of international perspectives and approaches, service structures and language of different jurisdictions.
- Develop an understanding of legislation, regulation, public and social policy, procedures and guidelines that impact individuals and families
- Analyze the coherency of the various instruments, legislation, policy and service delivery frameworks, that impact inclusive practices internationally and nationally
- Identify and evaluate the consequences, intended and unintended, of these collective instruments
- Present a framework for policy development, analysis and change
- Delineate the values and ethical principles that provide the foundation for policy development and implementation.
- Understand differences in approach to disability research issues and/or policies based on cultural, policy and other factors.
- Participate in an on-line dialogue to communicate with peers and instructors.
- Demonstrate a critical social science approach to the topic of policy research, development and dissemination.

Academic Integrity

The Department of Community Health Sciences expects intellectual honesty from its students. Course participants should be aware of University policies relating to Principles of Conduct, Plagiarism and Academic Integrity. These are found in the printed Faculty of Graduate Studies Calendar, or online under Faculty Regulations in the Faculty of Graduate Studies Calendar, or at www.ucalgary.ca/pubs/calendar/current/how/How_LB.htm.

Cut Points For Grades

This course adheres to the grading system outlined in the University of Calgary, Faculty of Graduate Studies Calendar. Percentage/letter-grade conversions are standard for courses in the Department of Community Health Sciences.

Grade	Course %	Grade Point Value*	Graduate Description*
A+	97-100	4.0	Outstanding
A	90-96.5	4.0	Excellent
A-	85-89.5	3.7	Very good performance
B+	77-84.5	3.3	Good performance
B	72-76.5	3.0	Satisfactory performance
B-	68-71.5	2.7	Minimum pass for students in the Faculty of Grad Studies
C+	63-67.5	2.3	All grades below B- are indicative of failure at the graduate level and cannot be counted toward Faculty of Graduate Studies course requirements.
C	60-62.5	2.0

Late Assignments

- Assignments are due on the specified date by 9 AM. Students who hand in assignments late will be penalized 5% per day for handing in late. Assignments that are handed in 14 calendar days or more after the due date will be refused and the students assigned a score of zero for the assignment.
- Students may hand in assignments late without penalty under the following circumstances:
 - The student has discussed the timelines with course instructor in advance of the due date and the course instructor has granted an extension
 - There is a valid health or family emergency such as is discussed under the University regulations for deferral of final examinations. Students may be required to provide the Course Coordinator with such documentation related to illness and/or emergency as is discussed and required in the University regulations pertaining to deferral of final examinations. This information can be found in the University Calendar.

Evaluation Plan

1. On line discussion: Students will participate in an online discussion each week. Students are expected to be prepared to discuss the weekly topic and contribute additional resources. Students will be expected to monitor their participation and use this, in part, for their self evaluation. (40%)
2. Policy analysis: Students will choose an area of interest and evaluate the international instruments, federal and provincial legislation, policy and practice that support this area. (20%)
3. Presentation: Students will prepare a 20 minute presentation. This presentation may be delivered on line or during the week of April 12-18, 2010. (30%)
4. Self evaluation: Students will prepare a 3-5 page document outlining their learning and participation in the course. The paper should provide evidence of participation and document key learning. (10%)

Course Timetable

- Week 1: Orientation and overview of the course
- Week 2: Overview of international, federal and provincial legislation and policy
- Week 3: Review of jurisdictional considerations and issues of coherency
- Week 4: Programs and services that result from legislation and policy
- Week 5: ethical frameworks and issues relative to legislation and policy
- Week 6: intended and unintended consequences of policy
- Week 7: Frameworks for policy analysis
- Week 8: Evaluating policy
- Week 9: Economic, social and cultural considerations
- Week 10: Reconciling social, professional and personal ethics
- Week 11: Conclusion and recommendations
- Week 12: Presentations

Purchasing a Textbook from the University of Calgary Bookstore:

- Shop online: www.calgarybookstore.ca Click on →Shop on-line; Click on →Textbooks; Follow the directions.
- Order by Phone: (403)220-5937; Toll Free 1-877-220-5937
- In person: Go to the University of Calgary Bookstore, MacEwan Student Centre, Room 155, 2500 University Drive NW, Calgary, AB T2N 1N4

Academic Accommodation

Students with a disability, who require academic accommodation, need to register with the Disability Resource Centre <http://www.ucalgary.ca/drc/> MC 295, telephone 220-8237. Academic accommodation letters need to be provided to course instructors no later than fourteen (14) days after the first day of class. It is a student's responsibility to register with the Disability Resource Centre and to request academic accommodation, if required.

Details for current course offerings are available at: www.crd.s.org

Additional References:

- Edinbinder, S. (2001). Policy analysis. In Encyclopedia of social work (19th ed.), pp. Washington, DC: NASW Press.
- Neufeldt, A. (1999). Appearances of disability, discrimination and the transformation of rehabilitation practices. In R. Leavitt (Ed.), Cross-cultural rehabilitation: An international perspective (pp.25-54). London, UK: W.B. Saunders.
- Enns, H., & Fricke, Y. (2003). The emergence of a global disability rights movement. In H. Enns, & A. Neufeldt, A. (Eds.), In pursuit: Canada and disability at home and abroad (pp. 84-110). Concord, ON: Captus Press.
- Richler, D. (2003). International involvement: A strategy for policy change at home and abroad. In H. Enns & A. Neufeldt. (Eds.), In pursuit: Canada and disability at home and abroad (pp. 137-151). Concord, ON: Captus Press.
- The transnationalization of popular movements: Globalization from below.(2000). In M.G.Wilson & E. Whitmore (Eds.), Seeds of fire: Social development in an era of globalism (pp. 34-65). Ottawa, ON: Fernwood Publishing.
- Bickenbach, J. (2006). Canadian Charter v. American ADA: Individual rights or collective responsibilities. In M. McColl & L. Jongbloed (Eds.), Disability and social policy in Canada (pp. 77-86). Concord, ON: Captus University Publications.
- Bickenbach, J. (2001). Disability human rights, law and policy. In Albrecht, G., Seelman, K. & Bury, M. (Eds.), Handbook for disability studies (pp. 565-584). Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage Publications
- Mitra, S. (2006). The capability approach and disability. Journal of disability policy studies, 16 (4), 236-247.
- A brief history: Attitudes and treatment of people with disabilities (n.d.)*. Retrieved October 4, 2006, from <http://www.ljik.com/ilarts.html>.

- Ideas and concepts in social policy. (2003). In K. Blakemore (Ed.), Social policy: An introduction (pp. 17-39). Buckingham, UK: Open University Press.
- Armitage, A. (1996). The discipline of social policy. In Social welfare in Canada revisited (3rd ed.). (pp. 161-177). Don Mills, ON: Oxford University Press Canada.
- Westhues, A. (2003). An overview of social policy. In Social policy: Issues and perspectives (3rd ed.) (pp. 5-21). Waterloo, ON: Wilfrid Laurier University Press,
- An introduction to social policy*. Retrieved October 4, 2006, from <http://www2.rgu.ac.uk/publicpolicy/introduction/socpolf.htm>
- An introduction to social policy*. Retrieved October 4, 2006, from <http://www2.rgu.ac.uk/publicpolicy/introduction/politics.htm>
- Wharf, B., & McKenzie, B. (1998). Policy making models and their connection to practice. In Connecting policy to practice in the human services (pp. 22- 38). Toronto, ON: Oxford University Press.
- The development of social policy in Britain. (2003), In K. Blakemore (Ed.), Social policy: An introduction (pp. 40-59). Buckingham, UK: Open University Press.
- Danish disability policy: Small steps, big change? (2003) In Hegelund, I. (Ed.) (2003), In search of effective disability policy: Comparing the developments and outcomes of Dutch and Danish disability policies (pp. 93-109). Amsterdam: Amsterdam University Press.
- Palier, B. (2004 January). Social protection reforms in Europe: Strategies for a new social model. Ottawa, ON: Canadian Policy Research Networks Inc.
- Burkhauser, R. & Daly, M. (2002). Policy Watch: U.S. disability policy in a changing environment Journal of Economic Perspectives, 16 (1), 213-224.
- Wharf, B., & McKenzie, B. (1998). Analyzing and evaluating social policies. In Connecting policy to practice in the human services (pp. 49-65). Don Mills, ON: Oxford University Press.
- Public policy analysis. In E. Borgatta, & R. Montgomery (Eds.), Encyclopedia of sociology (2nd ed.). New York, NY: MacMillian Reference USA.