

4-Year Bachelor of Community Rehabilitation (BCR)

This is a 4-yr. interdisciplinary program offered on-campus only.

(There is also a 2-year program after a related college diploma or 2 years university with prerequisites.)

Application deadlines:
April 1 for September admission

The Four-Year BCR requires the following courses:

Years 1 and 2

- CORE 205: Intro to Disability Studies
- CORE 207: Intro to Community Rehabilitation
- CORE 209: Disability in Theory and Everyday Life
- CORE 485: Introduction to Professional Conduct I
- CORE 487: Introduction to Professional Conduct II
- BIOL 205
- CORE 321
- PSYC 205 or 203
- 12 Open Options

Years 3 and 4

- CORE 415: Rehabilitation Management
- CORE 425: New Psychologies of Disability
- CORE 569: Emotional Disturbance Related to Disability
- CORE 589.01: Development of Service and Programs-
- CORE 589.02: Supervision in Community Practice
- CORE 573: Disability and the Law
- CORE 581: Professional Practice Issues and Professional Ethics
- CORE 583: Community Development in Community Rehabilitation

Required Multidisciplinary Courses

- 2 Community Rehabilitation Options
- 4 Health related courses including Human Anatomy and Physiology
- 4 Senior Social Sciences, Education or Social Work related to community practice, social policy or clinical specialties
- 2 Management courses

The BCR can lead to careers in areas such as:

- ✓ Community development and supports
- ✓ Community mental health
 - ✓ Acquired brain injury
 - ✓ Rehabilitation consulting
- ✓ Early intervention specialization
- ✓ Seniors' resource management
 - ✓ Policy research analysis
- ✓ Education and Rehabilitation Therapies

...and many others

All application details, forms, prerequisites, and deadlines are on our website:

www.crdsof.org

or

www.ucalgary.ca/crds

For information:
Beth Parrott
Tel: (403) 220 2271
parrott@ucalgary.ca